

Tel: (512)795-4100 • Fax: (512)287-4915 • Email: info@ambonare.com

---

JOB TITLE: DW Data Architect

GENERAL SUMMARY

We are looking for an experienced Data Warehouse Data Architect working on client projects. This individual will work with a team of senior database developers to architect and develop complex data warehouse applications. The work assignments involve all aspects of large, complex database systems.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Designs, plans, and implements all aspects of complex database management systems.
- Develops technical and organizational specifications for systems.
- Manages large, complex projects that are longer-term in nature or projects that have been identified as a critical priority for the user community.
- Sets quality standards relative to all aspects of database management.
- Identifies opportunities in database arena to address future business challenges or identify process improvements.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

- Comprehensive knowledge of database definition, design, and configuration.
- Knowledge derived from experiences with highly complex database systems.
- Possesses and applies comprehensive knowledge of database principles and practices.
- Deep knowledge and experience with off-the-shelf data warehouse products (e.g Teradata) and BI tools.
- Competent to work in all phases of client server relational database management
- Strong communication skills and organizational skills. Ability to effectively communicate with IT executives and business leaders.
- Ability to work under minimal direction and to manage several tasks at once.

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE

- BS in Computer Science or related fields required, MS in CS preferred.
- At least 5 years of work experience on data warehouse architect and database development.
- Certifications on databases, BI tools, and data warehouse products are preferred.

Compensation will be commensurate with qualifications.